FOREWORD

During these times when our attention is directed to the unrest and war throughout the world, we eagerly dedicate our abilities to help keep America out of war. Perhaps this can be done by our staying in our own land, by recognizing a fuller appreciation of our own greatness, and by developing and improving the western civilization which we have built and of which we are proud. Thus, as Americans appreciative of the country which is ours, we call attention to the great natural wonders of our own land by depicting on the division pages of this thirty seventh edition of Caerulea the Seven Wonders of the New World.

Wishing lots of luck really swell guy who is lots of fun. I hope I shall never forget the good times we had a while back.
 Sincerely,
 Josephine

May I congratulate the Caerulea staff upon the theme chosen for the annual, and the beautiful presentation of this thought in design and in pictures. What more appropriate purpose might we cherish in this critical period than to enlighten young Americans upon the glories of their native land, and thus to deepen their appreciation of our heritage and strengthen their purpose to preserve it!

Valedictory

"Backward, turn backward, O time, in your flight!"

Poly this year looks with dismay and shock at the loss by resignation, withdrawal, or retirement of nine of our best-loved and most successful teachers.

Time, that old thief, has crept up on some of us; new lines of endeavor and service have called to others; a few have decided to advise youth rather than to teach them for the next few years.

To you nine, apostles of education, Poly says in simple heartfelt gratitude for your splendid achievement, for your gracious fellowship, and for your wise leadership:

Thanks for your faithful service;
Thanks for your cheerful example;
Thanks for your guidance along worthy lines;
Thanks for your encouragement toward ideals;
Thanks—and God bless you!

Your friends of the Faculty
Your friends of the Student Body
Your friends of the Alumni

We wish you "Happiness Ahead," on a "New Horizon."

"WHERE YOU PASSED"

Along the campus paths we walked—
I walk alone today
In classroom halls where once we talked—
The spirit's flown away.
Oh happily we met, my friend,
And sadly do we part;
But where you passed you left a trail
Of blossoms in my heart.

STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

Niagara Falls

STUDENT BODY COMISSION—The Comission is a governing body made up of five student and four faculty members. It was founded on Poly's principle of student-faculty government. This group assisted in the solving of student body problems which arose during the school year; and its approval, advice and guidance were given to all scholastic activities. The President of the Boys' and Girls' Leagues and the Manager of the Student Body Store represented their organizations at Com-mission records were kept by an appointed Secretary. This organization worked unceasingly in an effort to improve and uphold the standards of Polytechnic High School.

COMMISSION—Lineberger, Bonhall, Willmore, Petrich, Turner, Long, White, Wallace, Deeble, Mr. Peniwell, Mr. Reid, Miss Lofland, Julian, Mr. Vermilya, Olney.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE—One of the most active student body organizations was the Chamber of Commerce. With their cooperation the school enjoyed the benefits of such activities as the Traffic Safety Campaign, Extemporaneous Speaking Contest, Sophomore Speaking Contest, and the annual visit of the Long Beach Municipal Band. In addition to this program a new plan for promoting friendship among the students was started. The Poly clubs were asked to list their activities on printed signs in an effort to encourage students to join their clubs. Mrs. Wright was the adviser.

BOYS' LEAGUE—The 1940 season of Boys' League work will be remembered as one of the most unique in the history of Poly Student Body Administrative Organizations. The officer of the Boys' League served as leaders of a Central Committee, a larger group which introduced many new events to the campus. The Boys' League Stag, an event which welcomed new boys to Poly, started things moving in October with 1500 Poly boys attending.

BOYS' LEAGUE OFFICERS—FIRST SEMESTER: Mr. Philips (adviser), Bob Green (Pres.), James Wright (Corr. Sec.), Hans Vogel (Rec. Sec.), Bob Howard (Vice Pres.).

BOYS' LEAGUE OFFICERS—SECOND SEMESTER: Bill Hart (Corr. Sec.), John Buckingham (Vice Pres.), Bill Bonhall (Pres.), Jim Myl (Rec. Sec.).

BOYS' LEAGUE CENTRAL COMMITTEE—ROW I: Stone, McConnico, Vogel, Bonhall, Barker, Slack, Bob Green, Bill Greene. ROW II: Turner, Mead, Julian, Myl, Klosterman, Graney. ROW III: Humfeld, Brust, Reed, Shumate, Lineberger, Wright. ROW IV: DeCoudres, Petrich, Cecil, Howard, Mr. Philips (adviser), Deck.

The Board's activities were diversified. They consisted of the new girls' party, the tea for the Jordan and Wilson Boards, the girls' assemblies, the Jackrabbit Roundup for senior girls, a reception to incoming 10b's at the end of the semester, the May Day program, and a joint party with Boys' League officers at the ice skating rink.

GIRLS' LEAGUE EXECUTIVE BOARD—ROW I: Miss Lacy (adviser), Folsom, Long, White, Miss Lofland (adviser). ROW II: Walker, Barnier, Stimson, Miss Harnett (adviser). ROW III: Teeter, Simpson, White. ROW IV: Graham, McGee.

GIRLS' LEAGUE ADVISORY BOARD—The Girls' League Advisory Board consisted of the Executive Board of six elected officers, the presidents of Poly's prominent girls' clubs, and the appointed chairmen of the standing committees.

GIRLS' LEAGUE ADVISORY BOARD—ROW I: Nelson, Reagan, Garnier, McGee, Folsom, White, Simpson, Hicks, DeYoung. ROW II: Miss Lofland (adviser), Heckman, Walker, Scofield, Elliot, Swenson, Reeder, Stimson, Reese, Hill, Miss Lacy (adviser).

GIRLS' LEAGUE ADVISORY BOARD—SECOND SEMESTER—ROW I: Simpson, Teeter, Christensen, Brainard, DeYoung, Graham, McGee, Andrews, White. ROW II: Hackett, Hill, Bradley, Denio, Padgham, Kenyon, Cunningham, Koepke. ROW III: Miss Lofland, Miss Harnett, Miss Lacy (advisers).

UNIFORM BOARD—This year the girls' uniforms were checked in section in order to increase checking efficiency. The checkers were chosen by the classes and decided the legitimacy of the excuses given them by the girls out of uniform. Demerits were given to those girls whose excuses were not accepted. The response given the board was encouraging.

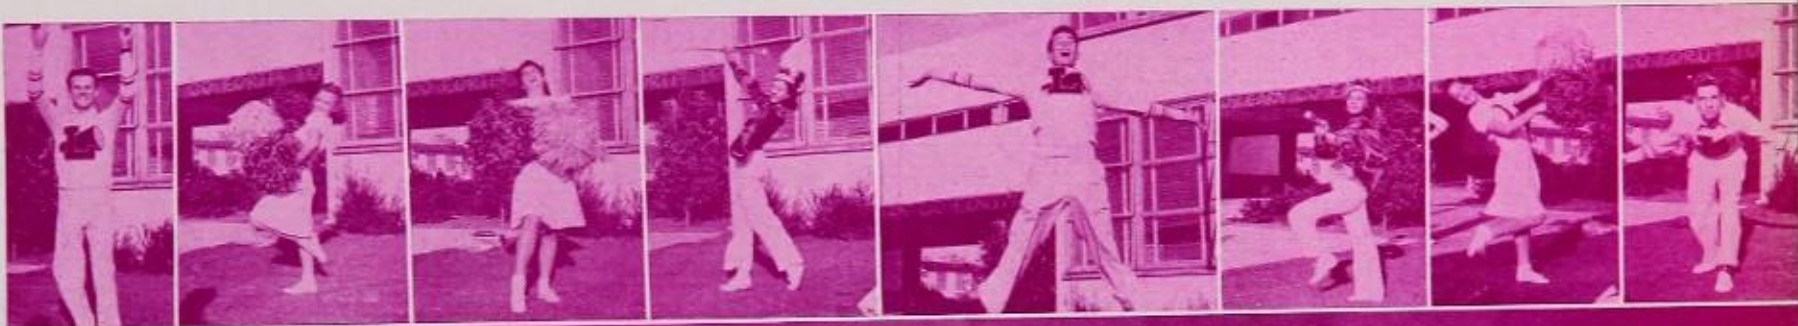

UNIFORM BOARD—SECOND SEMESTER—ROW I: Miss Richards (adviser), GaVette, Davis, Hill, Trucano, Marjorie Bair, Garwood. ROW II: Padgham, Doolittle, Lois Bair.

UNIFORM BOARD: Kalen, Halstead, Miss Richards (adviser), Hill, Bair, Doolittle, McGreevy, Maxfield.

SONG AND YELL LEADERS—The song leaders were chosen by the vote of the student body, and the yell leaders were elected by the Boys' League Central Committee. Experience, ability, and interest were the points considered in selecting the students to lead the crowds in their loyal support of the Jackrabbit teams. With colorful uniforms and pom poms, these leaders brought forth the traditional spirit of Poly, and added much to the interest of the many sports events.

Sincerely,
Jae M. M.

THE SEYMOUR AWARD

The Seymour Honor Award was named in honor of the late Charles F. Seymour who established the California Scholarship Federation. That graduating senior who earns the greatest number of scholarship and Gold L points receives the first place, is given twenty-five to thirty-five dollars, and has his name engraved on the bronze plaque which is kept in the office. The student earning the next greatest number of points receives fifteen to twenty-five dollars. First place was won last year by Ruth Ashton and second by Harrison Sigworth.

LONG BEACH JUNIOR COLLEGE

Last year the number of scholarships to Long Beach Junior College was increased to thirteen. Each scholarship amounted to twenty-five dollars. The points considered in the judging were scholastic record, character, need, and participation in school activities.

Betty Mae Barton won the Mary F. Baker Memorial Scholarship, founded by Mr. Yeary in memory of his mother. The Poly Parent-Teachers Association offered two scholarships which were won by Maurice Holmes and Joan Larimer. Mary Manchester won the Jane Harnett Memorial Award and Evangeline Lewis the Senior Class Scholarship. A scholarship is offered semi-annually by the Lions' Club. It was won in February by Frances Haughtelin and in June by Barbara Brantingham. Oliver Lowell and Genevieve McCay won the two given by the Poly faculty. Patricia King was given a scholarship in February by the Catholic Business Men's Club. In June, Jean Huron was awarded the scholarship offered by the Associated Women Students of Long Beach Junior College and Rodney Rhea was successful in winning the one offered by the Delta Theta Tau sorority. These two were the result of city wide competition.

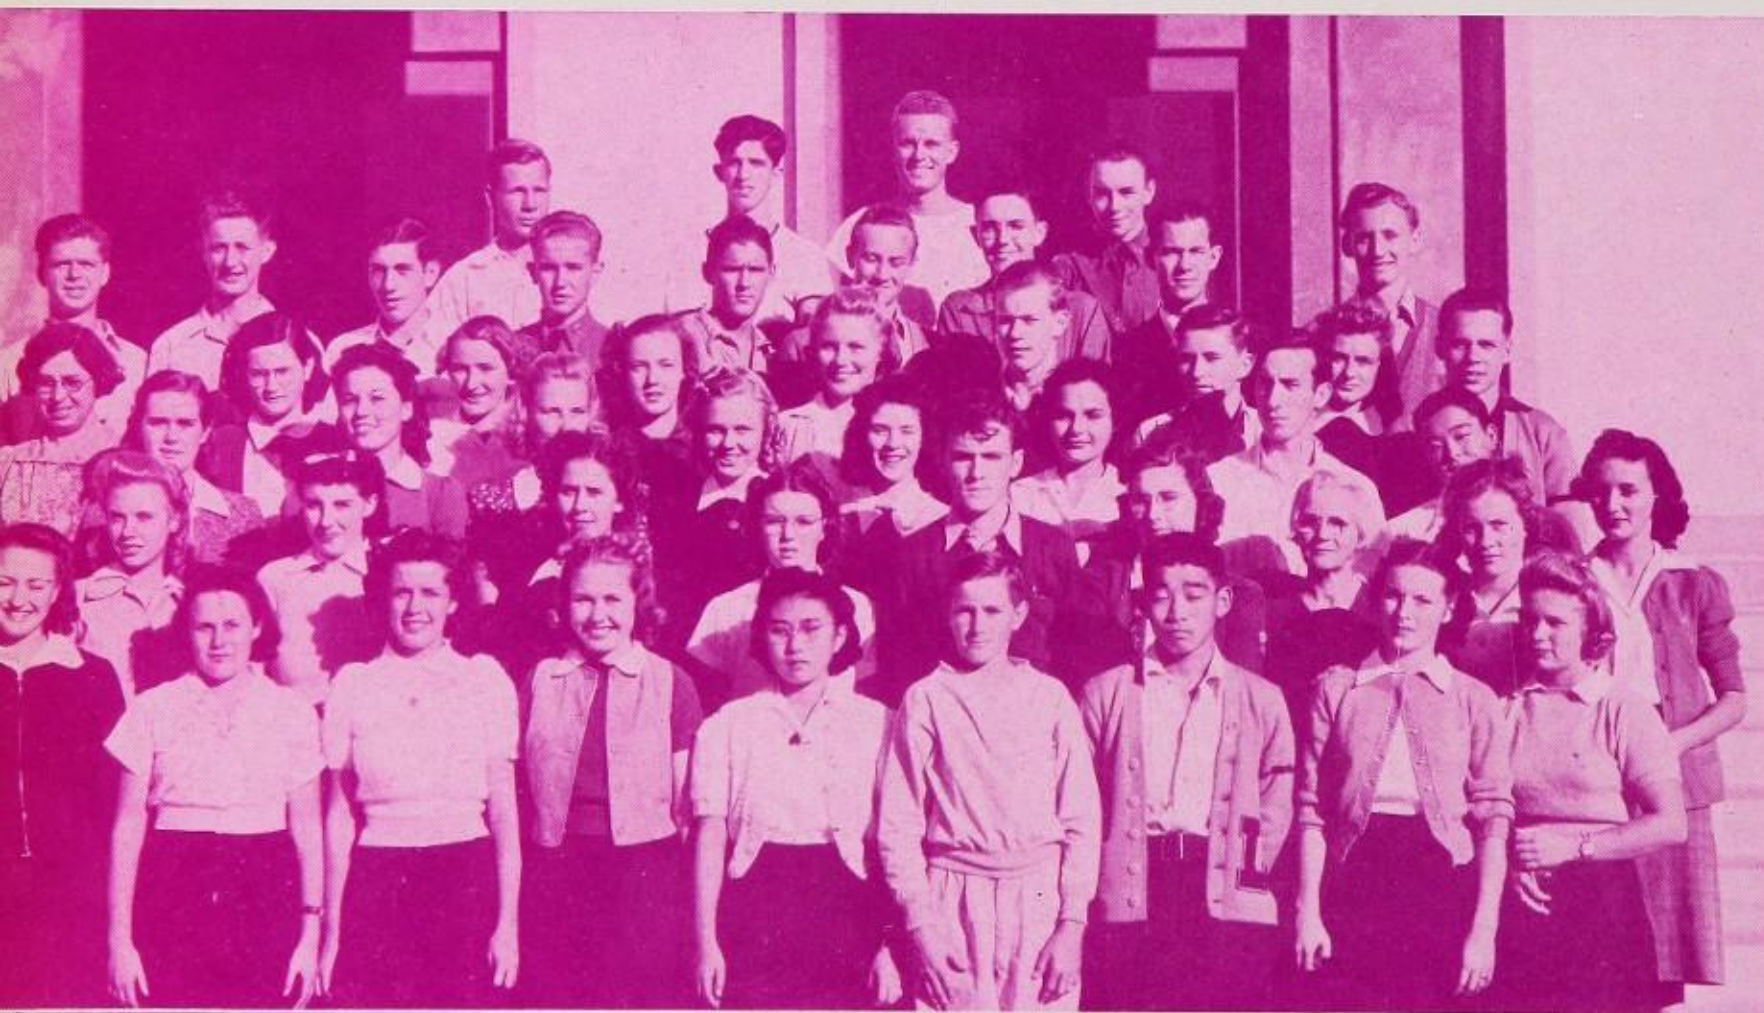

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS

Several Poly students won scholarships of amounts varying from $250 to $1200 offered by several universities. Dan Sedgwick, Bob Duvall, and Gene Pickett won scholarships to the University of California at Berkeley. Margery May Lindgren and Leah Glickson won scholarships to the University of California at Los Angeles. Two scholarships to the University of Southern California were won by Althea Christopher and Mildred Bicknell. Ruth Ashton won the $500 Bixby Scholarship to Scripps College, and Kenneth Folsom secured one to Princeton University.

SCHOLARSHIP—The main purpose of the scholarship society is to stimulate scholastic achievement, but various social activities play a big part in the yearly program. The high lights of the year were the annual awards banquet and Scholarship Regional Convention.

Every graduating senior who was eligible to receive the federation pin also had a Federation Chapter Seal embossed on his diploma. Also Award. The winner of this award, based on the greatest number of points open to the student of superior scholarship ability was the Honor Student in scholarship and general service, had his name engraved on the Honor Student Award plaque.

JUNIOR CLASS—The Junior Class this year was especially honored by Caerulea, for this is the first time that individual pictures of all Juniors have been included. The Poly photography classes, under the direction of Mr. Howard Gray, took all of the 1137 pictures and prepared them for engraving.

With pep and enthusiasm, the Juniors showed themselves capable of leading school affairs next year. They were well represented in all activities of the student body and cooperated with the Senior Class in presenting the two senior proms.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: LaVonne Andrews (sec.); Don Wallace (v. pres.); Jacquelin Scott (treas.); John Buckingham (pres.)

A large grid of 144 black and white portrait photographs of students, arranged in 12 rows and 12 columns. The students are of various ethnicities and are dressed in mid-20th-century attire. The portraits are arranged in a grid that is 12 rows high and 12 columns wide. Each row contains 12 individual portraits, and each column contains 12 individual portraits. The students are shown from the chest up, facing forward or slightly to the side. The background of each portrait is a light, neutral color. The overall appearance is that of a yearbook or a similar commemorative publication.

SOPHOMORE CLASS— Although the sophomores are new to Poly, they have striven with all their power to take their proper place in Poly life. They have accomplished this purpose by their work in various clubs, interest in scholarship, and participation in athletics. Their fine spirit from the start is evidence that they will continue to uphold the scholarship and traditions that have always been a vital part of Poly High. For the first time the Sophomore B Class elected officers. The election was held too late to have their pictures in this section. The officers were: Donald Brenner, pres.; Alice Manners, v. pres.; June Duncan, sec.; Betty Booth, treas.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT—Depicting scenes from the Bible in pantomime with soft music and carols for accompaniment, the Annual Christmas Concert was presented by students and teachers in the Poly Auditorium during the week preceding Christmas. Miss Shouse, Mr. Gill, Miss Rumsey, Miss Hoff, Mrs. Higgins, Miss Richards, Miss Wyant and Miss Aaronson joined forces in making this year's concert another link in the long chain of successes.

"Naughty Marietta"

Capable vocalism and smooth acting linked to a lively plot made the production of Victor Herbert's popular operetta, "Naughty Marietta", presented by the Music Department in the Poly Auditorium a definite hit.

Most of the action takes place in New Orleans about 1750. In the opening scene, Captain Dick Warrington has been sent to the Place d'Armes to capture the notorious pirate, Bras Pique. There he meets an irresponsible, high-born girl, Marietta, who has left the convent to see the world. Then the plot unfolds to the beautiful strains of Herbert's compositions symbolized by the opening, which is a lovely tone picture of dawn, through to the climaxing refrain, "Ah, sweet mystery of life". "Tramp, tramp, tramp"; "Taisez Vous"; "Naughty Marietta"; "It never, never can be love"; "If I were anybody else"; "Neath the Southern moon"; and the stirring finale, "Italian street song," make up the operetta's musical diet. This year Roberta Dodge and Laura Baird played the title role; Margo Burns and Violet Grant as "Lizette," Mary Puckett and Eileen Eschelman as "Adah"; Charles Keller and Olin Rampey as "Captain Dick"; Gaylord Fisher and Robert Matheny as "Etienne;" Don Nunez and Dick Montgomery as "Simon;" Clarence Van Horn and Richard Williams as "Captain;" Seymour Marks and Charles Hopper as "Rudolfo," were the supporting cast.

SENIOR GIRLS' AND JUNIOR GIRLS' GLEE—It would be unfair to attribute the success of the Christmas Concert and school Opera to one group. Directed by Miss Mary Shouse, the Senior Girls' Glee and Junior Girls' Glee combined efforts in the production of both the Christmas Concert and light Opera. Singing before civic and fraternal groups was also a part of the work of both groups for the year.

SR. GIRLS' GLEE—ROW I: McGee, Murphy, Dodge, Bagg, DeKlyne, Burns, Mayle, Martz, Witt. ROW II: Betty Jean Bennet, Baird, Christensen, Thomas, Reed, Rose, Wille, Puckett. BOY'S GLEE—This group is an indispensable link in the chain of musical groups at Poly. Its record of successful choral programs presented before Civic groups this year, coupled with the part it plays in the annual Christmas Concert and Opera, makes it an outstanding organization on the Green and Gold campus.

ADVANCED ORCHESTRA—ROW I: Alice Whitesell, Phelps, Zarate, Kelly, Schwartz, Douglass, Smith, Bradley, Cure. ROW II: Fraser, Doran, Ima Woods, Freed, Dalrymple, Appling, Freeman, Rosegrant, Dunbar. ROW III: Thompson, Hagman, Sorenson, Troutman, Cabot, Matheny, Martin, Young. ROW IV: Fusselman, Fewkes, Andreason, Shepard, Lund.

DRILL TEAM—Composed of 150 girls in white, carrying green and gold pom-poms, the drill team performed colorful formations for the entertainment of the crowds during the half-time periods of the home games.

BAND—Under the direction of Mr. Anthony Gill, the band brought new laurels to Poly. During the past school year they performed at football and basketball games and at the assemblies. The members spent many tireless hours perfecting their technique and deserve a great deal of gratitude from the student body.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU—Under the able leadership of Mr. McCay, the Speakers' Bureau has been of great help to our city in providing speakers for different fraternal, civic, religious, patriotic, and educational groups. The members of this organization are in great demand for educational and charity drives and are ready to give their services at all times.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING CONTEST—The Annual Extemporaneous Speaking Contest was sponsored by the Friday Morning Discussion Club and participation was open to all students in Poly. The finalists gave three minute talks in a school assembly after having had only one half hour to prepare speeches based on magazine articles. There were cash prizes for the first and second place winners. First place winner this year was John Mead; second place was taken by Bob Lineberger.

ATHLETES SPEAKING CONTEST—The Athletes Speaking Contest, under the sponsorship of the Poly Chamber of Commerce, offered an opportunity to all boys who had earned a letter in any sport to participate in an annual speaking contest. The preliminary tryouts were in December, and the final contest was held the third week in January. The entire student body was present to hear the finalists give five minute speeches on some phase of sportsmanship.

SAFETY SPEAKERS—Burcham, Sutter, Ehrman, Armstrong, Mrs. Wright, Peterson, White, Klopp, McCay.

SENIOR PLAY—"The Royal Family" was one of the cleverest and best written plays ever to be produced by Poly students. The drama stressed the tradition of the Barrymore family in perpetuating their glorious name in the theatre. There was much hilarious comedy, depicting the Barrymores' unorthodox way of living. The response of students in turning out for tryouts was the greatest in Poly's history.

SANTA ANA-POLY—In their first game of the 1939 season Poly was held to a 0-0 deadlock by a strong Santa Ana team. Santa Ana threatened once by moving to the Poly seven yard line, but this drive was successfully repulsed when the inspired Poly linemen broke through to throw the ball carrier for a 15 yard loss.

GLENDALE-POLY—After being held to two scoreless ties, Poly's grid machine finally snapped out of its non-scoring complex to defeat Glendale 18-7. Poly's first touchdown came in the third period on a pass to Swanson. In the fourth quarter Pat Jones went over the goal twice to score.

POLY-SAN DIEGO—Poly received a disappointment in the first league game of the '39 season at the hands of a strong San Diego eleven. With but 25 seconds left to play in the final quarter, San Diego threw a 17 yard pass for the deciding score. A successful conversion made the final score 20-13.

POLY-PHOENIX—After traveling 400 miles, Coach Maxson Montgomery's 1939 varsity eleven was deprived of victory by a fast Phoenix team. Phoenix came out of the fray on the long end of a 14-0 score.

POLY-SAN DIEGO HOOVER—The Poly Jack Rabbits, scoring in the second quarter, defeated the strong Cardinals of Hoover High 6-0 in the annual Homecoming Game played on Burcham Field.

POLY-WILSON—Poly's 1939 football team again defeated her cross-town rival, Woodrow Wilson, on Burcham Field 7-0. The lone score was made in the second quarter as the result of a 53 yard march sparked by Bill Lang. Pat Jones carried the ball over from the two yard line for the score. Captain DeCoudres inspired the team by his brilliant performance.

"B" FOOTBALL—Although suffering a number of setbacks, Coach Wallace Detrick's 1939 middleweight eleven showed the true fighting spirit and good sportmanship that has always been present in Poly's athletic teams.

...GIRLS' ACTIVITIES...

GAA—The GAA of Poly is made up of many clubs. Through membership in any one of these clubs a girl who has earned 100 points is automatically a member of GAA. Each year the GAA sponsors a number of parties for girls interested in athletics. There is a party each semester for sports-minded girls new to GAA, the annual Hi Jinks in the fall, and a Treasure Hunt in the spring.

G. A. A. EXECUTIVE BOARD—Crow, Gentry, Christensen, Schwenk.

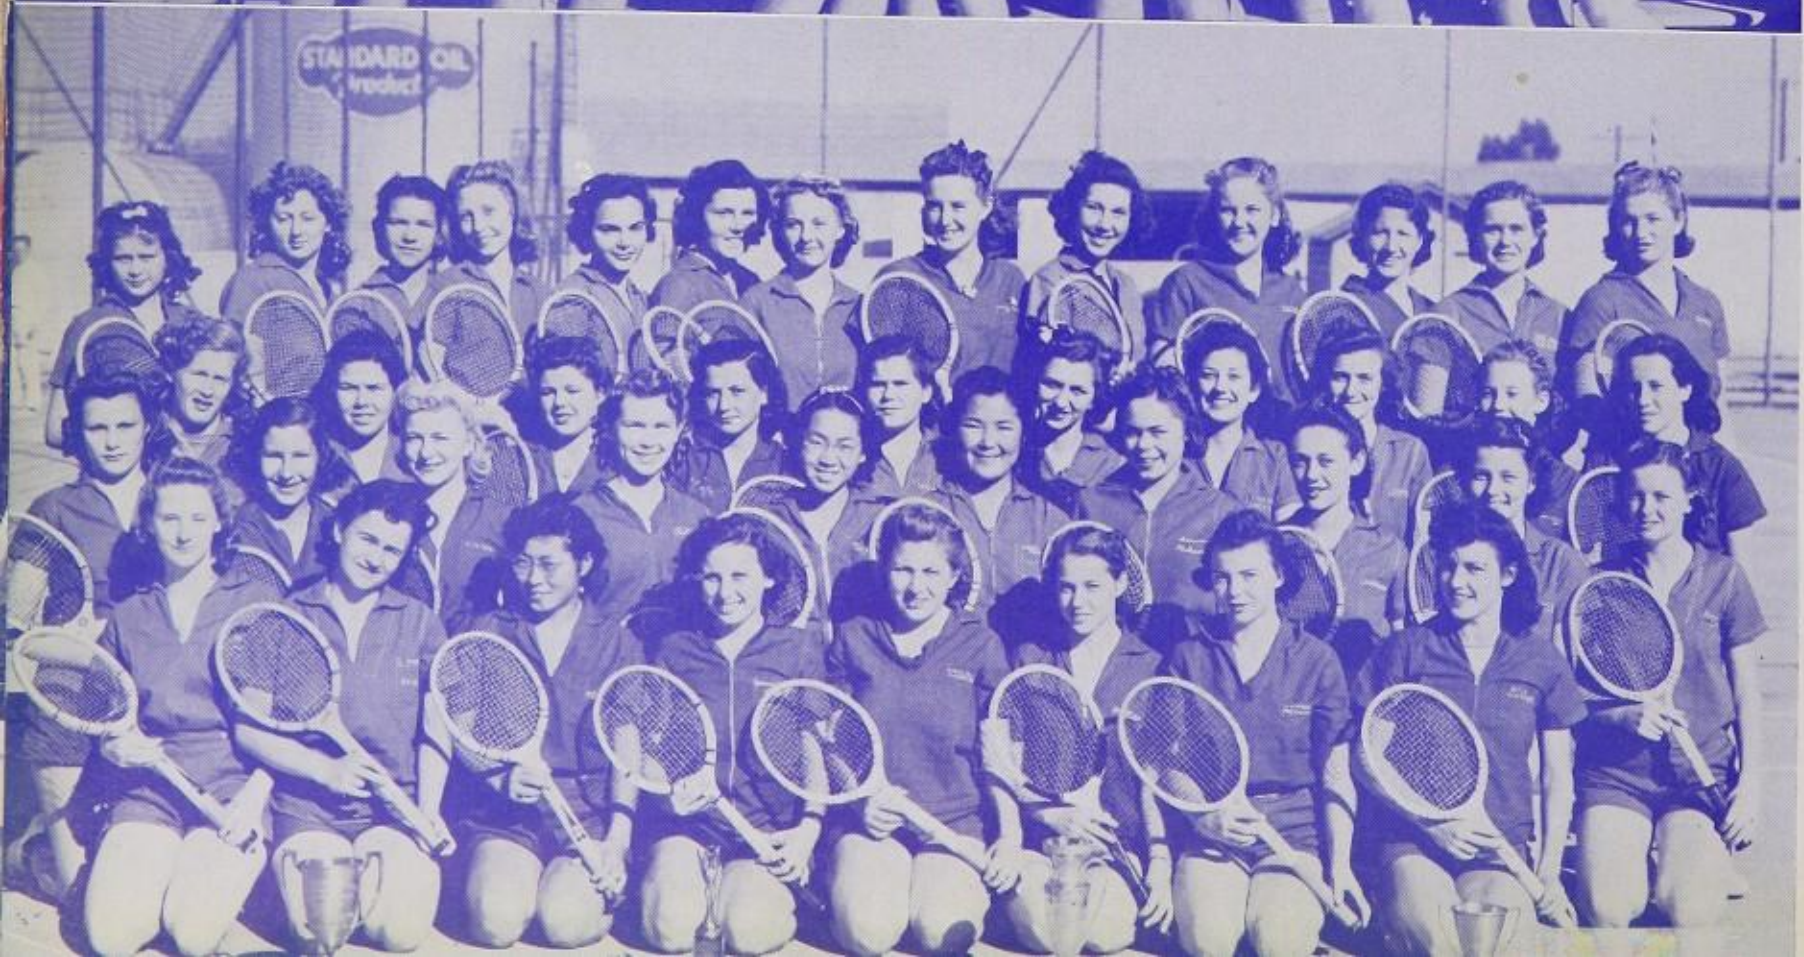

BEGINNING AND INTERMEDIATE TENNIS—This year the beginning and intermediate tennis players met on Wednesday or Thursday nights. These racket wielders were under the direction of Miss Pitt and Miss Gass.

ADVANCED TENNIS—The advanced tennis players participated in tournaments, singles and doubles. Cups were awarded to the winners by the Long Beach Tennis Association.

TENNIS CLUB—ROW I: Alber, Becker, Morooko, Lutz, Nickerson, Chambliss, Freeman, Whitmyre. ROW II: Fullerton, Paxon, White, Boyd, Nakaji, Tanaka, Tucker, Vaughn, Davies, Cooney. ROW III: Crowley, Koppel, Jones, Richard, Hickerson, Zigelman, Green, Key, Cunningham, Dickie. ROW IV: Welch, Kenner, Fannon, McGreevy, Hughes, Baker, Beeves, Mercer, Jeffries, Johnson, Dufort, Gentry, James.

SWIMMING CLUB—During the second semester the swimming club was organized to take the place of the Life Saving Corp. The club met every Tuesday in the pool at the Y.W.C.A. The officers of the club were Katherine Ried, Captain; Rae Seiler, First Mate; Patty Rossi, Second Mate.

SWIMMING CLUB—Row I: Billows, Whithill, Barker, Phelps, Smith, Schultz. Row II: Bruer, Dufloth, Hill, Hunton, Wilson, Perrin, Scott, Metzger. Row III: Harding, Appling, Jacobus, Martin, Johnston, Crane, Burdell, North. Row IV: Rossie, Seiler, Sulley, Reed, Sievers, Miss Poultney (adviser).

BASEBALL—Season of '39"! It was last year's Juniors who claimed the baseball championship in the most popular girls' sport at Poly. Each year there is a larger group of girls who are eager and enthusiastic to play. In previous years the game was played with overhand pitching, but this year the girls followed strict soft ball rules with underhand pitching and no lead-offs from the bases.

GIRLS' CHAMPIONSHIP VOLLEYBALL—ROW I: Carr, Whitmyre, Mercer, Eddings, Tanaka, Cunningham, McQuiston. ROW II: Sully, Nakashima, Reid, Merritt.

VOLLEYBALL—This year the spirited Juniors, led by Captain Mary Etta Eddings, were awarded the volleyball championship. There were at least 110 Juniors, Seniors, and Sophomores who answered the roll call on the girls' white outlined volleyball courts. The practice teams played three games every Monday and Wednesday afternoon. Sophomore, Junior, and Senior class teams were finally selected, and the play-offs completed another active season.

HOCKEY—Hockey is the most active and most complicated game that is played by the girl athletes. Every Monday and Thursday night of the hockey season the excess energy of the future "stars" was worked off. In the play-offs at the end of the season the Juniors surpassed the Sophomores and the Seniors to win the victory cup as undisputed champions of the hockey field.

JR. CHAMPIONSHIP HOCKEY TEAM—ROW I: Kacinski, Cunningham, Mercer, Eddings, Tanaka. ROW II: Even, Nakashima, Randall, McQuiston, Hill, Rossi, Hickerson, Seiler. (not in picture) Whitmyre, Hawkins.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL—Basketball is the pioneer in Girls' Sports here at Poly. Recently the game has been played with two courts which required additional head work and foot work on the part of the players. The best players of all three classes, Jr., Sophomore, and Sr., were chosen to demonstrate two-court basketball at the Physical Education State Teachers' Convention this year.

OUTING CLUB—The Outing Club offered its members the opportunity to participate in sports that appealed to each girl personally. Every other meeting was held off grounds at some appointed place. This club was really a combination of the other clubs in GAA because the girls rode horseback, learned archery, roller skated, bowled, swam, and played all the recreational games offered.

GIRLS' CREW—Ready all!—Ready!—Stroke! were the commands issued by the feminine coxswains each Thursday night after school at the Marine Stadium. The first semester, the members of the crew worked out in the barge, "Sheba." The second semester the most capable oarsmen were eligible to row in a shell. As an added feature the second semester girls learned the fundamentals of sailing a whale boat. Mary Sinclair presided both semesters.

GIRLS' GOLF CLUB—The twenty-five members of the Girls' Golf Club were enrolled in a golf class seventh period. The club itself met Tuesday during the first part of seventh period on the school grounds. The advanced golfers played every Tuesday or Wednesday after school at the Recreation Park Golf Course.

GIRLS' "L" CLUB—The Girls' "L" Club is a service club composed of girls who have earned at least 500 points in GAA activities. This year members of the club have aided the Girls League in assemblies to promote student government and have refereed games at Poly's GAA Play Days.

GIRLS' GOLF—Row I: Hamilton, Clifton, Reese, Jones, Denio, Ottell, Raymond, Janice Anderson. ROW II: Reed, Hicks, Delaney, Blair, Davis, Pettygrove, Weaver, Krug, Padgham. ROW III: Hanson, Jeanne Anderson, Murphy, Owen, Collins, Pack, Stimson, Scott, Tweedy.

BOWLING CLUB—This year the Girls' Bowling Club had an unusually large membership. It met after school on Wednesday at the Bowling Alley on West Anaheim. This year the club sponsored a tournament between the different teams.

GIRLS' BOWLING CLUB—ROW I: Stafford, Iola Young, Kline, Edwards, Hackney, Martin, Simpson, Deeble, Thomason. ROW II: Kuykendall, Crowley, Guinn, Bogart, Tye, Hosch, Burrows, Pettus, Beck. GIRLS' LIFE-SAVING—The newest club under GAA sponsorship is the Girls' Life-Saving Corps. It is part of the American Red Cross, therefore, nationally and internationally known for services and objectives. Poly is the first school in Long Beach to establish a Life-Saving Corps for girls.

RHYTHMS—In the class of advanced Rhythms the girls learned body coordination. This year they appeared in the Opera.

LIFE SAVERS—ROW I: Bellows, Alber, Baughan, Gartner, Hopton, Ehiert, White, Dickey. ROW II: Weatherill, Welsh, Campbell, Candland, Dickie, Terry, Doretta Wilcox, Gordon. ROW III: Miss Poultney (adviser), Seiler, Fritzie Wilcox, Preston, Wilson, Berry, Goble, Dorward, Rossi.

ENGLISH RIDING CLUB—This is one of the newest clubs sponsored by the G.A.A., for it has been organized only two semesters. Each semester the girls have been more enthusiastic in their support. This year the club met every Thursday after school at the Lakewood Stables. At meetings the girls were taught to ride as if they were to be professionals... that is, show style.

ENGLISH RIDING—ROW I: Cheatham, Miss Frame (adviser). ROW II: Knauss, Tillet, McMeekin, Elwell, Claxton, Ashford, Bogart, Earle.
